E. B. BRIDGEWATER, EDITOR
K. C. HOPPER, MANAGER

BRIDGEWATER & HOPPER,
Dear Sirs:—

I am very glad—entirely unsolicited—to express my full satisfaction with the very neat and artistic (Mary Queen of Scots) programme which you have turned out for me. Better work I am sure would be hard to find—and I am not looking for it.

J. M. LYDGATE.

No, my friend. An autobiography is not necessarily the history of an auto.

An unusual thing is reported from Connecticut. A woman found $3,000 in her dead husband's pocket-ets.

An Arkansas man was fined $50 for shooting an editor. Well that's about what us poor cusses are worth.

A St. Louis feather house went into bankruptcy recently.
Business was probably light as well as the feathers.

SOMETIMES when you think that opportunity is knocking at your door, it turns out to be only the bill collector.

A NEW YORK physician charged a man $50,000 for attendance for three months and the man died.
Guess that's what killed him.

WE are told that a Chicago mail house has recently shipped 10,000 alarm clocks to China. What China really needs is something to eat.

Now comes one man who predicts the end of the world in 1912 and another sees the coming of the millennium in 1915. One of them must be wrong.

AN Ohio woman who has never been kissed is 100 years old. If she had been kissed her life might not have been as long but she would have gotten more fun out of it.

A NOTED English physician says that drafts do not cause colds. He is right. They cause heat instead of cold. Ye editor gets hot every time he receives a draft through the bank.

THERE is a natural precedent to support the tail of a dog which is turning black as the result of eating a black kitten. Plenty of human beings eat crow, and as a rule, it makes them look pretty black.

IN New York a woman is trying to prove that she loved a man and she offers in evidence letters in which she called him her "ugly monkey" and her "curly bear." It must be splendid to be loved like that.

CHAMP CLARK wouldn't use the official automobile, and now he says he'll be dinged if he will eat in the speaker's private dining room they had fixed up at the capital. Champ is missing a lot of comfort.

THE dispatches tell us that an American army corps is all ready at Manila to embark for China. But the dispatches do not tell us what business an American army has in China. Are we going to Philippine that country too?

IF the Hottentots could read they would no doubt get a good deal of satisfaction in the American newspapers which are now telling about the tarring and feathering of a woman in Kansas and about a Missouri man hitching his wife to a harrow and driving her across a field.

THREE citizens of Lincoln Center, Kas., pleaded guilty recently to the charge of tarring and feathering Miss Mary Chamberlain, a Shady

Bend school teacher last August.
They should be taken out in the woods and given a dose of their own medicine. And as December is colder than August, so much the better.

WITH this issue, we are publishing the first of our single column story series. These stories have been especially prepared for our readers and are, we believe, above the average of like stories appearing ordinarily in the various papers of the islands. If the stories displease you, tell us why. If they please you, tell others.

MRS. BURGESS DIES

MAKAWELI, Dec. 12.—Mrs. Burgess, wife of James Burgess, a clerk in the Makaweli Store, died here this morning, following a brief illness.

A COMMUNICATION

Editor GARDEN ISLAND,

Dear Sir:

Much discussion has arisen over the recent declaration by Champ Clark on the annexation of Canada by the United States. The man who thinks Champ Clark a fool on the subject of annexation of Canada had better get wise himself. In my opinion, the majority of the people of this country is ready whenever Canada says the word. If not, why not? We are one country and one people in blood and tongue, divided only by imaginary lines, but united in love of liberty. What is the bar, let or hindrance to such a union? The trend of the age is away from monarchy, and the Canadian is fully abreast of the times, and so is Mr. Clark. K

AUTOMOBILE PILIKIA

Early last Wednesday-morning as Lionel Mahikoa turned the corner opposite the Lihue Store, the rear wheels of his car began skidding and by the time he regained control over his car, he had landed bang up against the curbing on the lower side of the street, a distance of nearly thirty feet from where the car began to skid. The car was put out of commission and was towed over to the Kauai Garage for repairs. Lionel was alone in the car, and while he escaped injury, was pretty well shaken up.
